THE SCORPION AND THE NIGHT BLOSSOM

THE IMMORTALITY TRIALS SERIES: BOOK ONE

by Amélie Wen Zhao

From the New York Times bestselling author of the SONG OF THE LAST KINGDOM series comes the beginning of a dark and opulent fantasy duology, perfect for fans of KINGDOM OF THE WICKED and FOURTH WING. In a world invaded by demons, one girl faces the ultimate test: to save her dying mother, she must enter into a fabled, ancient competition for a chance to save her mother's soul...or die trying.

Nine years ago, the Kingdom of Night began to seep into the mortal realm, and the Kingdom of Rivers was invaded by mó: beautiful and deadly demons that lure in humans with their appearance, then feast on their bodies and drink their souls. Those that survived the mó's initial invasion now live behind protective wards, hoping to get through to another day.

Àn'yīng hasn't forgotten the face of the demon who killed her father and drank her mother's soul. Àn'yīng was helpless then, but now, armed with her crescent blades and her father's magical practicing texts, she's determined to heal her mother's soul, and the Immortality Trials are her only hope.

Hosted by the Immortals in the Kingdom of the Sky, the Trials have taken place for centuries. Open to mortals who can find their way to the Kingdom of Sky, those who complete all eight trials and prove their merit are granted a pill of immortality—a prize Àn'yīng believes can restore her mother's soul. But competition is fierce, and if the Trials themselves don't kill her, the other contestants might.

Who is friend and who is foe? And who is the irresistibly handsome and frustratingly arrogant contestant who keeps appearing when Àn'yīng least expects it—and most needs help? Danger is everywhere, and Àn'yīng is beginning to see signs that not all is right in The Kingdom of Sky. Night is coming for the Immortals--and when they fall, all is lost.

- Both SONG OF THE LAST KINGDOM books were instant New York Times & Sunday Times bestsellers!
- Over 104k followers on TikTok

Praise for previous SONG OF THE LAST KINGDOM series:

“Zhao weaves, within the pages of SONG OF SILVER, FLAME LIKE NIGHT, an epic, masterfully rendered tale of reckoning and heritage that draws its readers into a world as rich as it is nuanced, and as intriguing as it is magical.”
-Ayana Gray, NYT bestselling author of BEASTS OF PREY

“Devastatingly gorgeous... [E]ach page of SONG OF SILVER, FLAME LIKE NIGHT unfolds with a deliberate, skilled hand. Amélie Wen Zhao writes with a direct line to my heart.”
-Chloe Gong, #1 NYT bestselling author of THESE VIOLENT DELIGHTS

Amélie Wen Zhao (赵雯) was born in Paris and grew up in Beijing, where she spent her days reenacting tales of legendary heroes, ancient kingdoms, and lost magic at her grandmother's courtyard house. She attended college in the United States and now resides in New York City, working as a finance professional by day and fantasy author by night. Amélie is the NYT bestselling author of the SONG OF THE LAST KINGDOM duology and the Blood Heir trilogy.

THE GREATEST HEIST IN JOVIALA

by Adi Alsaid

A girl fights to free her sister from a curse while a beautiful mountain is at risk of being turned into a theme park in this giggle-worthy yet heartfelt middle grade adventure set in the world of THE BRAVEST WARRIOR IN NEFARIA.

Having grown up in Nefaria, a land where evil schemes abound, Candelabra is thrilled to take a school trip to Joviala, a land that's prone to natural disasters but has virtually no evil in it. All her life, she's dreamt of a place where everyone is caring and happy and without malicious intent, and now it's coming true for her.

But Jovialan Schmebecca isn't so sure her country's reputation is earned. A company has just been approved to move her beloved mountain to install a theme park, and that sounds pretty evil to her. She enlists the help of veteran evil-scheme-thwarters Candelabra and Bobert, and together, they work to uncover the possible evil scheme—but when a twist pits their goals against each other, the fight against evil becomes a lot more complicated.

Praise for previous book THE BRAVEST WARRIOR IN NEFARIA:

"Fresh, humorous, and fun"

—Kirkus Reviews

"This goofy middle grade debut from Alsaid (Actually Super) possesses a simmering humor drawn from the premise and setting's thoroughly absurd trappings, and its good-intentioned protagonists lend it an upbeat tone."

- Publishers Weekly

"Delightfully wacky, hilariously absurd, and perfectly relatable. It's just plain fun!"

- Chris Rylander, author of THE LEGEND OF GREG

Adi Alsaid was born and raised in Mexico City, where he spilled hot sauce on things. Along with writing and traveling the world, Adi has coached high school and elementary school basketball. In addition to Mexico, he has lived in Tel Aviv, Las Vegas, Monterey, and Chicago.

THE GHOST OF YOU

by Michael Gray Bulla

A heartbreakingly beautiful exploration of grief, and a highly unusual pathway to healing, from the author of IF I CAN GIVE YOU THAT.

Caleb's world broke the day his brother died of a drug overdose. Now in the throes of grief, Caleb hardly ever sees his friends anymore, and school isn't much better. He's on the verge of failing his songwriting class, never mind that music used to be his greatest passion. Even Tanya, his best friend, is growing tired of trying to push him out of the door and back into his life.

But perhaps most concerning of all: a black cat has been following Caleb around... a cat that only he can see. A cat that may just be a ghost.

Then, Caleb is assigned a songwriting partner in class: Emmett, the nonbinary lead singer of a local punk band. The cat takes a liking to Emmett—and maybe Caleb does, too. As they write together, Caleb begins opening up about his grief, and the two realize they have more in common than expected. Now, Caleb will have to decide if he is ready to heal with Emmett's help—or to recede in life and become as invisible as the ghostly cat at his heel.

Advance Praise for THE GHOST OF YOU:

"A sweet and tender LGBTQIA+ story that sensitively explores important topics like grief and substance abuse, THE GHOST OF YOU is equal parts eye-opening and heartwarming."

- ZR Ellor, bestselling author of MAY THE BEST MAN WIN

Michael Gray Bulla is a young adult novelist and poet from Franklin, Tennessee. He was named the 2017 Nashville Youth Poet Laureate with Southern Word. His first poetry collection, LETTERS TO HOME, was published in 2019.

LOOKING FOR SMOKE

by K.A. Cobell

In her powerful debut novel, LOOKING FOR SMOKE, author K. A. Cobell (Blackfeet) weaves loss, betrayal, and complex characters into a thriller that will illuminate, surprise, and engage readers until the final word. A must-pick for readers who enjoy books by Angeline Boulley and Karen McManus!

When local girl Loren includes Mara in a traditional Blackfeet Giveaway to honor Loren's missing sister, Mara thinks she'll finally make some friends on the Blackfeet reservation.

Instead, a girl from the Giveaway, Samantha White Tail, is found murdered.

Because the four members of the Giveaway group were the last to see Samantha alive, each becomes a person of interest in the investigation. And all of them—Mara, Loren, Brody, and Eli—have a complicated history with Samantha.

Despite deep mistrust, the four must now take matters into their own hands and clear their names. Even though one of them may be the murderer.

- Sold in a major 2 book, seven-figure deal at auction.

Advance Praise for LOOKING FOR SMOKE:

"A stunning debut, as beautiful as it is bold. Cobell has woven an aching examination of grief in an Indigenous community with a thriller brimming with so many secrets and twists, it'll leave you breathless."

BRING ME YOUR MIDNIGHT

by Rachel Griffin

From the New York Times bestselling author of THE NATURE OF WITCHES and WILD IS THE WITCH; comes a lush romantic fantasy about forbidden love, the choices we make, and the pull between duty and desire.

Tana Fairchild's fate has never been in question. Her life has been planned out since the moment she was born: she is to marry the governor's son, Landon, and secure an unprecedented alliance between the witches of her island home and the mainlanders who see her very existence as a threat.

Tana's coven has appeased those who fear their power for years by releasing most of their magic into the ocean during the full moon. But when Tana misses the midnight ritual—a fatal mistake—there is no one she can turn to for help...until she meets Wolfe.

Wolfe claims he is from a coven that practices dark magic, making him one of the only people who can help her. But he refuses to let Tana's power rush into the sea, and instead teaches her his forbidden magic. A magic that makes her feel powerful. Alive.

As the sea grows more violent, her coven loses control of the currents, a danger that could destroy the alliance as well as her island. Tana will have to choose between love and duty, between loyalty to her people and loyalty to her heart. Marrying Landon would secure peace for her coven but losing Wolfe and his wild magic could cost her everything else.

- An instant New York Times and USA Today Bestseller!

ADIA KELBARA AND THE CIRCLE OF SHAMANS

Adia Kelbara and the Circle of Shamans: Book One

by Isi Hendrix

An unputdownable story about carving your own path out in the world, for fans of SCHOOL FOR GOOD AN EVIL and ARU SHAH AND THE END OF TIME.

Life is tough for twelve-year-old orphan Adia. Her aunt and uncle believe she's an ogbanje, a demon-possessed child that brings misfortune wherever they go, and Adia can't disagree—especially when she suddenly manifests mysterious powers that she can't control, causing an earthquake in her village.

So when Adia is offered a kitchen apprenticeship at the faraway Academy of Shamans, she flees with nothing but a pouch of change, her cat Bubbles, and the hope that someone there can figure out what's wrong with her—and fix it. But just as she's settling in, Adia stumbles upon a shocking secret. Darian, the emperor of Zaria, really is possessed, by a demon more wicked than any other. And he's on his way to the Academy for a visit.

Joining forces with a snarky Goddess, a 500-year-old warrior girl, and an annoying soldier-in-training, Adia must travel through hidden realms to exorcise Darian and save her kingdom. But to succeed, she first must come to understand the mysterious powers inside her...

The fate of the world hangs in the balance.

- Sold in a heated US auction for mid six-figures & in the UK for six figures, in a three-book deal

Praise for ADIA KELBARA AND THE CIRCLE OF SHAMANS:

"Adrenaline-fueled action and inventive worldbuilding personify this captivating Afrofantasy, a series-starting debut by Hendrix... Fully fleshed out characters—including a snarky goddess and several effervescent allies—populate this clever adventure, which teems with smartly rendered twists and oodles of hope and heart."
- Publishers Weekly

"Hendrix's skillfully built, West African-inspired fantasy is populated with multidimensional characters ... An engrossing and layered series opener."
- Kirkus Reviews

"Hendrix's awe-inspiring debut novel is a truly masterful addition to the afrofantasy genre, [intertwining] the cultural richness of African mythology with the visceral history of colonization in a package that will entice middle-grade readers... This immersive fantasy, the start of a planned trilogy, deserves to be on every shelf."
- Booklist, starred review ★

"This book is incredible! With a dazzling cast of characters wrapped up in a rich, imaginative afro-fantasy world, Adia's thrilling journey will have you eager to turn the next page!"
- B.B. Alston, #1 NYT bestselling author of AMARI AND THE NIGHT BROTHERS

"Deep, piercing, and urgent, ADIA KELBARA AND THE CIRCLE OF SHAMANS marries historic heft with the soaring possibilities of magic to tell a spellbinding story of empowerment and liberation."
- Soman Chainani, NYT bestselling author of THE SCHOOL FOR GOOD & EVIL series

NOT ABOUT A BOY

by Myah Hollis

Euphoria meets Girl in Pieces in this coming-of-age story of a girl trying to put a grief-stricken past behind her, only to be startled by the discovery of a long-lost sister who puts into question everything she thought she knew.

Amélie Cœur has never known what it truly means to be happy.

She thought she'd found happiness once, in a love that ended in tragedy and nearly sent her over the edge. Now, at seventeen, Mel is beginning to piece her life back together. Under the supervision of Laurelle Child Services, the exclusive foster care agency that raised her, Mel is sober and living with a new family among Manhattan's elite. It's her last chance at adoption before she ages out of the system, and she promised, this time, she'll try.

But a casual relationship with a boy is turning into something she never intended for it to be, causing small cracks in her carefully constructed walls. Then the sister she has no memory of contacts Mel, unearthing complicated feelings about the past and what could have been.

As the anniversary of the worst day of her life approaches, Mel must weather the rising tides of grief and depression before she loses herself, and those close to her, all over again.

Advance Praise for NOT ABOUT A BOY:

"Beautiful, raw, poignant. NOT ABOUT A BOY is a searing debut full of humor, heart, and the expansive range of emotions that rage within us all. Read this book to remember why feelings come first. Myah Hollis is a breath of fresh air."

- Danielle Parker, author of YOU BET YOUR HEART

"NOT ABOUT A BOY feels like a good cry with your best friend. Heartbreaking but ultimately hopeful, Myah Hollis's writing is a breath of fresh air in the YA space."

- Elise Bryant, author of HAPPILY EVER AFTERS

"Myah Hollis is a superb new talent who captures Amélie's story with honesty, wit, and heartrending prose. Not About A Boy explores overcoming our inner and outer demons with precise finesse, Hollis's pen as sharp as an exacto knife. This book will live in your bones as an unforgettable masterclass on the teen mind, mental health, and found family. Hollis is a talent for the ages."

- Lane Clarke, author of LOVE TIMES INFINITY

"Staggeringly honest and emotionally-complex, NOT ABOUT A BOY paints a portrait of a girl on the cusp of adulthood with tenderness and tenacity. Deftly intertwining lyrical prose and searing wit, Hollis writes for the girls who've been lost and understand the grueling task of finding oneself all over again."

- Jade Adia, author of THERE GOES THE NEIGHBORHOOD

Myah Hollis is a Pennsylvanian writer living in Los Angeles. She specializes in "Sad Girl Lit", mainly due to her chronic fascination with psychology. NOT ABOUT A BOY is her debut novel.

SPICE ROAD

SPICE ROAD TRILOGY: BOOK ONE

by Maiya Ibrahim

The first book in an epic fantasy series for fans of Sabaa Tahir, Hafsah Faizal and Elizabeth Lim, set in an Arabian-inspired land. Raised to protect her nation from the monsters lurking in the sands, seventeen-year-old Imani must fight to find her brother whose betrayal is now their greatest threat.

In the hidden desert city of Qalia, secret spice magic awakens affinities in those who drink the misra tea. With an affinity for iron, seventeen-year-old Imani wields a dagger like no other warrior, garnering her the reputation as the next greatest Shield for battling the dangerous djinn, ghouls, and other monsters that lurk in the sands beyond city limits.

Her reputation has been overshadowed, however, by her brother who tarnished the family name after he was discovered stealing their nation’s coveted spice—a tell-tale sign of magical obsession. He disappeared soon after, believed to have died beyond the Forbidden Wastes, and leaving Imani reeling with both betrayal and grief.

But when Imani uncovers evidence her brother may be alive and spreading their nation’s magic beyond the desert, she strikes a deal with the Council to find him and bring him back to Qalia before he can reveal the city’s location. Accompanied by Qayn, a roguish but handsome djinni, and Taha, a powerful beastseer whose magical talents are matched only by his arrogance, they set out on their mission.

Imani will soon discover there are many secrets that lie beyond the Forbidden Wastes—and in her own heart—but will she find her brother before his betrayals endanger the fate of all of Qalia?

In this epic and action-packed fantasy, one young heroine navigates the treacherous road between protecting the ones you love and staying loyal to the place you call home.

BEHOLDER

by Ryan La Sala

From Ryan La Sala, author of the tantalizingly twisted THE HONEYS and riotously imaginative REVERIE, comes a chilling new contemporary fable about art, aesthetic obsession, and the gaze that peers back at us from behind our reflections.

No one survived the party at the penthouse. Except Athan.

Athanasios “Athan” Bakirtzis has made it far in life relying on his charm and good looks, even securing an invitation to a mysterious penthouse soiree for New York City’s artsy elite. But when he sneaks off to the bathroom, he hears a slam, followed by a scream. Athan peers outside, only to be pushed back in by a boy his age. The boy gravely tells him not to open the door, then closes Athan in.

Outside the door, the party descends into chaos. Through hours of howls, laughter, and sobs, Athan stays hidden. When he finally emerges, he discovers a massacre where the corpses appear to have arranged themselves into a disturbingly elegant sculpture—and Athan’s mysterious savior is nowhere to be found. Athan—the only known survivor—is now the primary suspect.

In a race to prove his innocence, Athan is swept up in a supernatural mystery, one of secret occult societies and deadly eldritch horrors with rather distinctive taste. Something evil is waking up in the walls of New York City, and its compelling victims toward violence, chaos, and self-destruction. Bound to him by a mysterious hereditary power, Athan has felt this evil hiding behind his reflection his entire life, watching him. Waiting. Now, it’s taking over.

Part paranormal thriller, part urban Gothic, and all wall-to-wall horror, Beholder is a novel as rich as it is spellbinding. It explores the monstrous side of beauty—and what it can do to us when we’re caught up in its web.

Praise for BEHOLDER:

“La Sala balances inventive gruesomeness with thematic depth in this bewitching horror novel, a tale laced with spine-chilling gore... [A] queer-positive narrative that unflinchingly tackles hard questions about perception and aesthetic obsession. The result is a top-notch horror novel and a tearjerker.”

QUEEN OF FACES

QUEEN OF FACES SERIES: BOOK ONE
by Petra Lord

In this astonishing YA debut, set in a world where the rich buy and switch designer bodies like clothes, a teen girl of no means must use only her illusion magic and quick thinking to earn a new body before the decaying, male form she’s been stuck in takes its last breath.

Anabelle Gage is trapped in a boy’s body, and it’s rotting from the inside out.

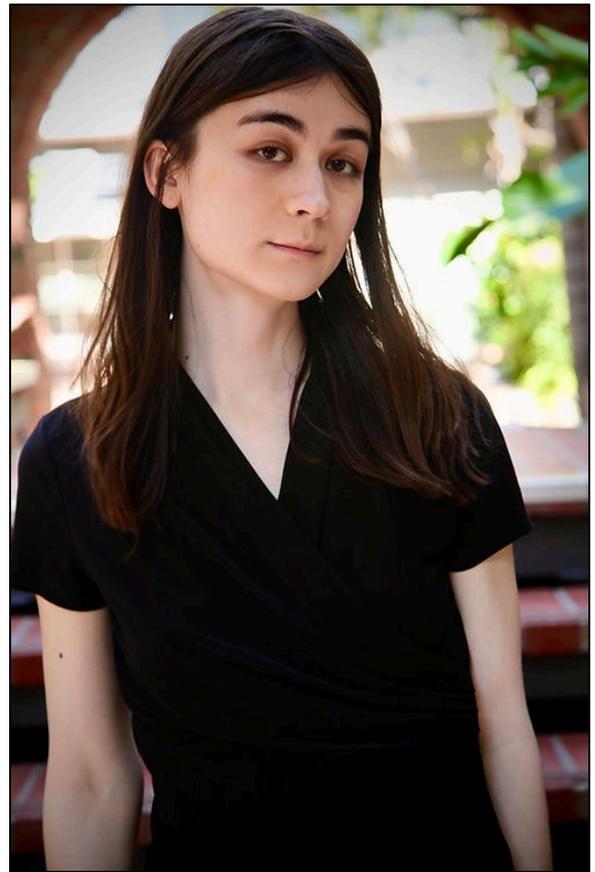

In the nation of Caimor, the wealthy buy and swap fabricated bodies like clothes. But Ana, a mere scullery maid, can only afford a grey, withering form for herself, and by her seventeenth birthday, it’s already falling apart. Attending Paragon Academy, Caimor’s elite magic school, is her last shot at a new body—but when Ana fails the entrance exam for the third time, she puts her illusion magic to the task of stealing one instead.

Except Ana is caught, and by no less than the Paragon headmaster. He offers her a choice: die for her crime, or become a mercenary under his command, working secretly against those who would see the nation’s magical elite toppled. Desperate, Ana accepts. No matter how dangerous or illegal the job is, if she earns enough money, she just might be able to escape her body before it kills her.

But revolt brews in Caimor’s smog-choked underworld, and at its helm is Khaovivhe, the most infamous outlaw mage in history. As Ana steals, fights, and kills for the school of her dreams, she is drawn into the dark, tangled web of Khaovivhe’s machinations...and she discovers secrets that will upend her idea of who the heroes of her story are—and that threaten to leave her world in ruins.

ONE LAST BREATH

by Ginny Myers Sain

The New York Times bestselling author of DARK & SHALLOW LIES delivers another chilling supernatural thriller filled with murder, romance, and a decades long mystery that haunts a small Florida town.

True love never dies. It just stays buried.

Mount Orange, Florida, is famous for two things: Cerulean freshwater springs, perfect for free divers who aren't afraid of lurking gator, and the gruesome cold case murder of best friends, Bailey and Celeste, twenty years ago.

The spectre of Bailey and Celeste's murders cast a permanent darkness over sunny Mount Orange. Tru has always lived in that shadow. Sometimes, it seems like she knows the long-dead Bailey, feels the dead girl in her bones. Now she's supposed to head to FSU in the fall with her boyfriend, but those unsolved murders -- and the death of her own sister -- invade her every thought. It's only in the shadowy deep, 100 feet below the surface of Hidden Glen Springs, that she can breathe.

When Rio, a strange girl, rolls into town, hell-bent on figuring out who killed Bailey and Celeste, Tru can't resist entangling herself in the thrill of solving the decades old mystery any more than she can resist her familiar, aching attraction to Rio.

As the summer heat ignites, so does the spark between Tru and Rio...along with their other-worldly connection to Bailey and Celeste. But when someone begins stalking them, the girls become convinced the killer is back in town. And if they keep digging into the past, Tru and Rio know this time, it could be their blood that makes the springs run red.

Advance Praise for ONE LAST BREATH:

"Fast paced and thrilling... Suspense drips from every scene, and the alarming and scary elements build expertly toward a thrilling climax that will surprise even devoted fans of the genre... [F]ull of spine-tingling pining, lust, and love."

- Kirkus

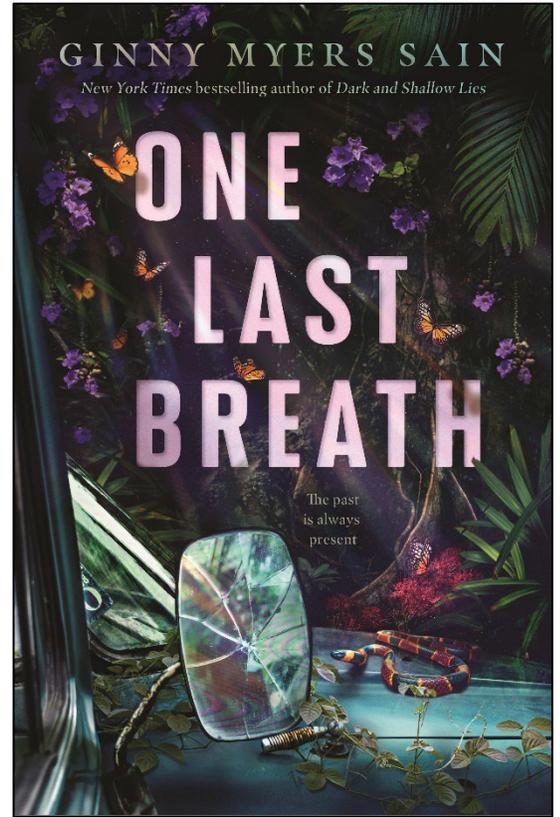

"Murder, suspense, and reincarnation blend together in Sain's latest psychological thriller. Sain pulls no punches in telling her story."

- Booklist

"Sain weaves together a grounded depiction of the stifling closeness and quirky personalities of a small Florida town, beautiful descriptions of free diving in freshwater springs, and a propulsive, true crime-informed murder investigation to craft a page-turning thriller."

THE WRONG WAY HOME

by Kate O'Shaughnessy

A huge-hearted story about a girl learning to question everything, and to trust in herself.

Twelve-year-old Fern believes she's living a noble life--but what if everything she's been told is a lie?

Fern's lived at the Ranch, an off-the-grid, sustainable community in upstate New York, since she was six. The work is hard, but Fern admires the Ranch's leader, Dr. Ben. So, when Fern's mother sneaks them away in the middle of the night and says Dr. Ben is dangerous, Fern doesn't believe it. She wants desperately to go back, but her mom just keeps driving.

Suddenly Fern is thrust into the treacherous, toxic, outside world. At first, she thinks only about how to get home. She has a plan, but it will take time. As that time goes by, though, Fern realizes there are things she will miss from this place--the library, a friend from school, the ocean--and there are things she learned at the Ranch that are just...not true.

Now Fern will have to decide. How much is she willing to give up to return to the Ranch? Should she trust Dr. Ben's vision for her life? Or listen to the growing feeling that she can live by her own rules?

Advance Praise for THE WRONG WAY HOME:

"The suspenseful story is immediately intriguing... A tremendous testament to the power in plotting your own course."

- Booklist, starred review ★

"O'Shaughnessy succeeds in raising awareness by bringing the abuse of cult communities to light through a gripping storyline and beautifully imperfect supporting characters... A strong, emotionally intelligent story."

- Kirkus, starred review ★

"Lovingly crafted with depth and compassion."

- The Bulletin of the Center for Children's Books, starred review ★

"This new middle grade story by Kate O'Shaughnessy shines bright in its exploration of identity, family, and community. Young readers will cheer for Fern as she finds the courage to confront the troubling doctrines she has been raised with and reinvent her ideas of home anew."

—Jacquetta Nammar Feldman, author of WISHING UPON THE SAME STARS and THE PUTTERMANS ARE IN THE HOUSE

"THE WRONG WAY HOME is an engrossing story about a girl who is forced out of a cult and then must decide if she wants to return. O'Shaughnessy's gift is an innate understanding of the inner life of twelve-year-olds."

—Gennifer Choldenko, Newbery Honor Winner for AL CAPONE DOES MY SHIRTS

THE NIGHT ENDS WITH FIRE

THE NIGHT ENDS WITH FIRE DUOLOGY: BOOK ONE

by K. X. Song

Infused with magic and romance, this sweeping fantasy adventure inspired by the legend of Mulan follows a young woman determined to choose her own destiny—even if that means going against everyone she loves. Perfect for fans of R. F. Kuang and Rin Chupeco.

The Three Kingdoms are at war, but Meilin’s father refuses to answer the imperial draft. Trapped by his opium addiction, he plans to sell Meilin for her dowry. But when Meilin discovers her husband-to-be is another violent, ill-tempered man, she realizes that nothing will change for her unless she takes matters into her own hands.

The very next day, she disguises herself as a boy and enlists in her father’s place.

In the army, Meilin’s relentless hard work brings her recognition, friendship—and a growing closeness with Sky, a prince turned training partner. But has she simply exchanged one prison for another? As her kingdom barrels toward destruction, Meilin begins to have visions of a sea dragon spirit that offers her true power and freedom, but with a deadly price.

With the future of the Three Kingdoms hanging in the balance, Meilin will need to decide whom to trust—Sky, who inspires her loyalty and love; the sea dragon spirit, who has his own murky agenda; or an infuriating enemy prince who makes her question everything she once knew—about her kingdom and about her own heart.

Advance Praise for THE NIGHT ENDS WITH FIRE:

“THE NIGHT ENDS WITH FIRE is what blessedly happens when the themes of Hua Mulan’s legend are combined with wuxia principles and a powerful new voice in adult fantasy. K.X. Song’s soaring, emotive prose takes the reader on an unforgettable adventure in a painstakingly realized world, laced with fascinating characters that effortlessly play off of one another and twists that leave us reeling. I devoured every page of this truly epic tale.”

—Thea Guanzon, USA Today & NYT bestselling author of THE HURRICANE WARS

“Sweepingly epic and tenderly romantic, THE NIGHT ENDS WITH FIRE is a fiercely feminist adventure about a young woman fighting to shape her destiny in a world of lore, magic, and war.”

—Amélie Wen Zhao, NYT bestselling author of SONG OF SILVER, FLAME LIKE NIGHT

“Exhilarating and intricately told, THE NIGHT ENDS WITH FIRE is both a breathless adventure and an unflinching portrayal of power, female ambition, and the costs that come with it.”

—Grace D. Li, NYT bestselling author of PORTRAIT OF A THIEF

“. . . a cinematic tale of epic proportions, with jaw-dropping twists and a take-no-prisoners heroine yearning for freedom, recognition, and glory. An explosive start to a captivating new series.”

—Axie Oh, NYT bestselling author of THE GIRL WHO FELL BENEATH THE SEA

K. X. Song is a diaspora writer with roots in Hong Kong and Shanghai. Raised between cultures and languages, she enjoys telling stories that touch on collective memory, translation, and the shifting nature of memory and history. # BLOOD AT THE ROOT

Blood at The Root Duology: Book One

by LaDarrion Williams

A teenager on the run from his past finds the family he never knew existed and the community he never knew he needed at an HCBU for the young, Black, and magical. Enroll in this fresh fantasy debut with the emotional power of Legendborn and the redefined ancestral magic of Lovecraft Country.

At just seven years old, Malik's life changed forever the night his mother mysteriously vanished, and he discovered he had uncontrollable powers. For ten years, he kept his abilities hidden, looking out for himself and his younger foster brother, Taye. However, a daring act to safeguard them both reveals an unexpected connection with his long-lost grandmother: a legendary conjurer with ties to a hidden magical university that Malik's mother attended.

At Caiman University, Malik's eyes are opened to a future he never could have envisioned for himself— one that includes the reappearance of his first love, Alexis. His search for answers about his heritage, his powers, and what really happened to his mother exposes the cracks in their magical community as it faces a reawakened evil dating back to the Haitian Revolution. Together with Alexis, Malik discovers a lot beneath the surface at Caiman: feuding covens and magical politics, forbidden knowledge and buried mysteries.

In a wholly unique saga of family, history and community, Malik must embrace his legacy to save what's left of his old family as well as his new one. Exploring the roots and secrets that connect us in an unforgettable contemporary setting, this heart-pounding fantasy series opener is a rich tapestry of atmosphere, intrigue, and emotion.

DARK STAR BURNING, ASH FALLS WHITE

SONG OF THE LAST KINGDOM SERIES: BOOK TWO

by Amélie Wen Zhao

The epic sequel to the New York Times bestselling SONG OF SILVER, FLAME LIKE NIGHT, this fast-paced, riveting YA fantasy is inspired by the mythology and folklore of ancient China.

The Demon Gods have risen. Skies' End has fallen to the colonizers. And Lan and Zen have chosen sides, but they will not fight together.

Though Lan inherited the power of the Silver Dragon, she understands the path she must take. She believes the Demon Gods to be the cause of war, conflict, and turmoil, and that the future of the Last Kingdom depends on their being eliminated forever. Worse, she knows that if the Elantians manage to bind one of the legendary beings, their army will be unstoppable. To save her kingdom and her people, Lan will need to find the only mythical weapon capable of destroying the Demon Gods: the Godslayer.

Zen is sure that the only way to free the Last Kingdom is to use the power of the Demon Gods. When he bound the Black Tortoise, he paid the ultimate price: to inherit its strength, he will forfeit his body, his mind, and his soul. Yet one Demon God is not enough against the might of the colonizers. In the ruins of the northern Mansorian lands slumbers a magical army of demonic practitioners capable of facing off against the Elantians—but Zen must find the Seal to awaken them to fight by his side.

At the center of both Lan's and Zen's journeys is one city: Shaklahira, a former stronghold of the Imperial Court that vanished without a trace when the Elantians invaded. Its location is a mystery, and both are sure that it holds the answers they need, but the past it hides might be more dangerous than anything they've faced yet.

The battle for the Last Kingdom rages on. But to win the war, Lan will have to decide: Can she face the boy she loves again? And when she does, can she kill him to free her people?
